

What can we do to further engage parents to support students' learning, progress and well-being?

Invite all parents / all year to forum

Feedback on homework / feedback in general

Survey of parent jobs

Summer / Christmas fair

Variety of times / later timings of events

Promotion of Parents Forum in different ways

Nothing has been coming through for Year 7 ParentMail

Better use of planners – often blank!

Website updated with relevant information – picture of teacher on website?

PTA

Clarify how parents contact Guidance Manager or specific teachers – email address

Subject leaders email address!

Well-being – ask Samuel Blake to come to next Parent Forum

More Twitter feeds – perhaps from each department

Publicise outcomes / feedback from Parent Forum to other parents

Meeting dyslexia team at the start of term

Who children's teachers are, rather than sir or miss? – to assist with communication between school and home.

Meeting the Form Teacher before start of term / Guidance Manager

More individual recognition daily/weekly basis

Communication – primary school have a weekly letter

Advertise again / more publicity of the Parents Forum

Translate the timetable for parents, I didn't know the subjects and my son didn't know the teachers names, just initials
